

Meg Gallimore

Multidisciplinary
Art Director, Designer
+ Illustrator

Hello.

My name is Meg and I'm an Associate Creative Director, Art Director. I'm passionate about making work that solves problems and turns heads, My roots are in design and illustration, and I have an advertising design degree from the Fashion Institute of Technology in NYC. The past 16 years I've spent my time at shops like Hill Holliday, Arnold Worldwide and Allen & Gerritsen. My experience has given me the skills to craft solutions for analytical software, donuts, and everything in between. Some of my award-winning work has been seen in campaigns for Dunkin' Donuts, Liberty Mutual, Johnson Controls and the Museum of Science to name a few.

Thanks for reading, let's go make something!
